LAST NIGHT AT LOCAL PLAYHOUSES PLAGIARISM CHARGE DAILY COURT RECORD

THE ACADEMY.

"St. Elmo."

The dramatization by Willard Holcomb by Augusta Evans, is a decided success, both as regards its interest as a story and its adaptability to modern stage close analysis might prompt some critical disputation in regard to the intrinsic literary value of the original story or the present adaptation, but the play as preunless it has become second nature by view tenable when the play is paralleled teriorated at any time into low comedy. acteristics. drama and grotesque comedy prevailing in the middle strata of playhouses. It at least has a story to tell and a moral to point, and if it had no other quality, the fact that it takes the audience from beyond the reach of East Side slang would ommend it. The story was written quite a quarter of a century ago by Augusta Evans and obtained such popularity as to make "Have you read 'St. Elmo?" " the conversation-provoking question of the hour. The interest of the present production is strong emotional powers, with repressed method, being particularly successful in The supporting company is much too showing the transition from mocking unbelief and cynicism to true repentance Queenie Vassar, W. W. Black, Maude POLITICAL BOSSES and pure love, Miss Elsa Berold is equally Campbell, and Almee Ehrlich are deservas successful as Edna Earl. She has a ing of praise for the excellent things that pleasing personality, plays with natural- they did. ness, and succeeds in the emotional George Sylvester, as Gordon Leigh; Vir-

THE CASINO.

the average vaudeville theater-goer.

pany in their one-act comedy called "An Uptown Flat," present a delicious bit of humor which is good because it is new The story illustrates the ups and downs assisted by William Messenger, who, by the way, offers several musical numbers of his own composition.

the Xlyphone," rendered several numbers with rare skill. She was encored several times, and appeared at her best in her rendition of "Cavallieria Rusticania." Max and Mex had every one guessing as to which was the donkey, and had the audience laughing all the time in addition. Cadieux with his sensational feats on a tight wire; Adams and Mack, with their burlesque magic, and Browne. Seamans and Browne, in a clever musical roller skating stunt, added to an especially entertaining programme.

THE GAYETY.

"Follies of New York and Paris." Hurtig & Seamon presented their "Follies of New York and Paris" at the of the performers. Gavety Theater last night for the first appreciated.

as Ikey Sheinstein, the comedian, repreassistetd by a capable cast and a bevy of pretty girls, with many catchy songs. Silvery Moon," "As Long as the World the vitagraph showed the Paris flood. Rolls On," and "Good Luck, Mary." Jennie Austin brought down the house in her song, "I Just Can't Keep My Eyes Off You." Retween scenes one and two Powder and Chapman gave a good exhibition of singing and dancing.

Bessie Pardue's Eight English Roses, in sensational dances, and the concluding number, a novelty, the "Scarecrow Man. by Sammie Brown and the Eight English Roses, proved popular.

THE LYCEUM.

"The Tiger Lillies."

The Tiger Lillies made a strong im pression upon the audience that was present at the New Lyceum last evening. Billy Spencer, as the grotesque Grogan, and Sam Mann, as Issy Cohen, contribute the comedy, while Alice Lee and May E. Hadley, head the gentler sex. The olio and singers, Sam Mann and company in the laughable skit "The Producer," the Three Musketeers, and the Torleys, Novel Cyclists.

"Zallah," the dancing Venus, concluded

A Rural Aviary.

Up in Boone County a Miss Parrott has fust married. Her stepfather's name is Bird and her sister-in-law is named Peacock, while her father-in-law is a prominent member of the local Eagle lodge.

THE NEW NATIONAL.

"Little Nemo."

Four clever comedians, a small army has visited here in some time.

times for bows and encores. That was the only thing that did not savor of the broadest comedy; but nothing deteriorated at any time into low comedy. In almost every act there are special things contributed by the trio of leading comedians—Joseph Cawthorn, Harry Kelly, and Harry Clay Blaney—that set the audience roaring with laughter at the audience roaring with laughter at their antics or other nonsense. Some of the court of the audience roaring with laughter at their antics or other nonsense. Some of the court of the seats were all taken. At the close the second act the author appeared to the audience roaring with laughter at counts, earls, dukes, and such like, all view tenable when the play is paralleled.

In almost every act there are special A satire upon the proverbial bent of the from the stage to-night replied to the their antics or other honseless. Counts, caris, duaes, and such that the second act the author appeared by the second act the second act the author appeared by the second act the author appeared by the second act the author appeared by the second act the second act the author appeared by the second act the second act the author appeared by the second act the author appeared by the second act the s maniac, the Whiffenpoof, and the Pan-sirous of becoming rich in purse. She is and made a speech.

a well-known actor, with fidelity to the captivated the house, especially with his ally laid in England; one in a hotel in role as conceived by the author. He has songs, "I Guess I Talk Too Much" and Westpool, and the second in a houseboat "Won't You Be My Playmate?"

numerous to mention many of them, but

But besides the clever work of the prinperiods without resorting to undue stress. cipals, mention should also be made of The other characters are agreeably sus- the splendidly trained chorus and the of Market street, to put through the tained by Ruth Gates, as Agnes Powell; really wonderful way in which the eleven council a resolution, mildly worded, but and in a drawing room in this city. scenes are mounted and the costumes of loaded with dynamite, a request from the the chorus, for they easily excel any magrane, as Rev. John Hammond; Frederick Harold, as Murray Hammond; Dick Huffman, as Aaron Hunt and Shadrach. The play is well staged, and the audience seemed distinctly to enjoy the revival.

The CASINO.

The chorus, for they easily excel any the chorus, for they easily excel any thing that has been here for a long time, strikers get together and arbitrate. Then they are in the board of directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company who will not turn their ears away when McNichol and Vare talk.

The authors keep the plot well hidden.

The authors keep the plot with dynamite, a request from the city fathers that the company and the authors the control of the production—and they are in the board of directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company who will not turn their ears away when McNichol and Vare talk.

The authors keep the plot with dynamite, a request from the city fathers that the company and the author—which should directors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company who will not turn their ears away when McNichol and the city fathers the the city fathers that the company and the author—which should divers the point of the production ginia Bray, as Mrs. Murray; T. Ashton the chorus, for they easily excel any-

A well-halanced bill is booked at the The play is supposed to be a series of Casino this week and the entertainment naps of Little Nemo, but really it is no meeting. They demanded, in the name Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thorne and com- asleep over.

CHASE'S.

Polite Vandeville,

"When I Arrive on Broadway," with some imitations, while Billy Van got off his line of funny talk, with some ensemble song and comedy. The Sully family also contributed a farcial skit called "The Suit Case," with plot hinging on the mixing up of a number of suit cases bearing the initials of a number of persons same letters. It is uproarlous in quality, pated in by the whole family.

An artistic and graceful number was wires, and produced many beautiful ef- of action that will bring peace. fects, one of which was augmented by

The performance of Oscar Loraine was Two Gay Cities," with Charles Howard Kubelik, and Joachim, with characteristic Street Railway Employes, got here toselections on the violin, the whole consents one good, long laugh. He is ably stituting a very enjoyable part of the programme. Mareena, Nevaro, and Mareena furnished an interesting equili- during the day, about half the number The best musical numbers were "You bristic exhibition, James McDonaid con- in use normally, and that it was running Should See That Dance," "Has Anybody tributed some songs and saying, De Lisle 540 to-night. The company reported that Here Seen Kelly." "By the Light of the juggled a great variety of things, and 200 strikers had deserted their union and

PERKINS MAY RECOVER.

Physicians are hopeful for the recovery Representative Perkins, of New York, if the change in his condition in the last two days can keep up.

Mr. Perkins was reported resting comnight.

Senator Tillman is improving rapidly, his complete recovery being now but a matter of time. Senator Smith, of Michigan, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Homeopathic Hospital, is also rap-

Not any Wilk Trust The Original and Genuine

WALTED WILL The Food Drink for All Ages.

Pure Nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates the nursing mother and the aged. Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. A quick lunch prepared in a minute. That girl's nest ought to be pretty well Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

THE BELASCO.

"The Prince of Bohemia."

of "St. Elmo," the celebrated love story of pretty chorus girls, plenty of catchy Mack, presents that interpreter of Irish songs, bright costumes galore, and stage wit and melody in a somewhat new line settings that seem to be the last word of effort. The play is a musical one, in in magnificence of their kind combined two acts, with book by J. Hartley Manand its adaptability to modern stage to make "Little Nemo," at the National ners, music by A. Baldwin Sloane, and last night, one of the most enjoyable lyrics by E. Ray Goets. While neither of and entertaining things of its kind that these gentlemen has done anything exceedingly clever in producing the back-There is nothing serious in the piece bone of "The Prince of Bohemia," they present adaptation, but the play as pre-sented last night at the Academy is so at all-if one excepts Mr. Cawthorn's have collectively woven a play that comsented last night at the Academy is so grand opera selections on the accordion, bines romantic interest, rather fetching infinitely superior, both in sentiment and which caught the fancy of the audilatter day literature and drama as to ence, so that he had to return several sufficient quantity to entertain-allowing thoroughly preclude any such criticism times for bows and encores. That was largely for the assistance of Mr. Mack, unless it has become second nature by constant recurrence. Especially is this the broadest comedy; but nothing de- and the sprightly Lew Fields chorus charmaniac, the Whiffenpoof, and the Paninsula; the burlesque north pole discovery scene, in which the two rival discoverers fight a duel over the telephone, and the drill of the Tar Heel Zouaves.

It is doubtful if the management could have selected four better comedians for the leading parts. Joseph Cawthorn still with the design and the leading parts. Joseph Cawthorn still with the design methods.

Sirous of becoming rich in purse. She is likewise followed by a jolly good-formothing good-formothing fellow named Dick Conyers (Andrew Mack), who is desperately in love with her, as he should be, of course, and who, turning out well worth while, naturally wins out after disclosing his rivals' scheming methods.

Linited States; appeal from the Court of Claims; indement reversed and cause remanded with insure rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the true manner of the Wilde productions, and that they were quite detached from the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Company et al.; appeal from the Court of the States; appeal from the Court of the sum rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the true manner of the Wilde productions, and that they were quite detached from the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Company et al.; appeal from the Court of the Sum rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Company et al.; appeal from the Court of the Sum rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Company et al.; appeal from the Court of the Sum rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Court of the United States; appeal from the Court of the Sum rowed some of the epigrams from Wilde's plays, and declared it was done in the Court.

No. 108. William R. Bush Construction Court of the United States; are selected four better comedians for the fath that the dealing parts. Joseph Cawthorn will was been identified to a several control of the fath that the dealing parts. Joseph Cawthorn will was been identified to a several control of the fath that the dealing parts. Joseph Cawthorn will was been identified to a several control of the fath that the dealing parts. Joseph Cawthorn will was been identified to a several control of the fath that is a several control of the fath that the fath that the seasons of his old methods—the several control of the fath that the fath that the fath that the seasons of his old methods—the several control of the fath that the fath that the seasons of his old methods—the sea on the Thames.

TO SETTLE STRIKE

Continued from Page One.

sured Mr Gimbell and Mr. Lit that the company would take their demand under consideration.

The directors were submitted to pressur to-day that was extraordinary. Ministewhose names happened to begin with the rial bodies, associations of merchants, and the large employers of labor demanded in but some good songs are introduced, like- person or in writing that the company re- that the value of these two scenes, as wise some very clever dancing partici- cede from its determined stand. Out- well as any other that really counted in the conference with Mr. Gimbel, it was perior knowledge of the audience over the An artistic and graceful number was the "Aerial Ballet," led by Mile. Floretta, announced that the company saw no reason as yet to arbitrate anything. There as butterfiles, and using at times rainbow scarfs. They were suspended on directors are already considering a course.

An artistic and graceful number was the conference with Mr. Gimbel, it was perior knowledge of the addience over the williams for the appellant, vs. Clark Iron Company et al.; advanced to be heard with Nos. facts of the dramatist's story. Never did this time-honored tradition of construction work, out its effects more infallibly.

No. 800. Obser Mitchell, appellant, vs. Clark Iron Company et al.; advanced to be heard with Nos. facts of the dramatist's story. Never did this time-honored tradition of construction work, out its effects men and women on the stage as to the facts of the dramatist's story. Never did this time-honored tradition of construction with the company announced that the company saw no reason as yet to arbitrate anything. There is information to-night, though, that the conference with Mr. Gimbel, appellant, vs. Clark Iron Company et al.; advanced to be heard with Nos. No. 801. Helvetia-Swiss Fire Insurance Company. bow scarfs. They were suspended on directors are already considering a course Mayor Reyburn to-night gave an interall," said his honor.

The Rapid Transit Company announced to-night that it had 900 cars in operation applied for work to-day at the company's Singing Society Observes Its Twenoffices. Of these 126 were re-employed.

There was very little disturbance today. The only serious encounter the police had with rioters was at Lancaster avenue and Forty-fifth street this morning. Special policeman Joseph Lestrange was beaten by roughs when he attempted to save a motorman from ill treatment. ortable at the Garfield Hospital last Thirty policemen broke up the mob.

WILL ARREST PACKERS.

Warrants Will Be Made Out and Extradition Demanded.

New York, Feb. 28 .- Prosecutor of the hinery required to bring within the urisdiction of the county courts the twenty-one directors of packing companies who were indicted for conspiracy produce an artificial scarcity of meats and poultry in the Hudson County markets in order to increase prices.

"Warrants for the arrest of the de-Sheriff James J. Kelly Wednesday," he said. "As clerk of the court, the county For Infants, Invalids, and Growing children. clerk will make out the capiases and turn was under the direction of Prof. Karl them over to the sheriff for execution. "The sheriff will make a return of the names of those defendants whom he canwill begin proceedings at once looking to their extradition."

Largest Morning Circulation.

DENIED BY GIBSON

"The Prince of Bohemia," with Andrew Author Appears on Stage to Answer Criticism.

"The Turning Point" Presented Before Crowded House in New York and Young Washington Clubman Admits He Borrowed Some of the Epigrams from Wilde's Production.

them.
WILDE: Mabel Chiltem—Oh, I love London society! * * It is entirely composed of beautiful idiots and brilliant lunatics.

Act I, page 4.
GIBSON: Pansy Parr—Brainy men don't care for beautiful idiots and brilliant lunatics.

Act III.
WILDE: Lord Goring—Nothing ages like happiness.

Act III.
WILDE: Lord Goring—Nothing ages one like happiness.

Act III.
WILDE: Lord Goring—Nothing ages one like happiness.

Act III.
WILDE: Lord Goring—Nothing ages one like happiness.

Act III.
WILDE: Lord Goring—Nothing ages one like happiness.

Act III.
WILDE: Sir Robert Chiltern—Spies are of no use now-adays. Their profession is over. The newspapers do their work instead.

And I page 86.
GIBSON: Ferguson—You've been spying on me.
BRECKENRIDGE—Spies are of no use now-adays. Their work in done by the newspapers, and a great deal better.

Act IV.

Scenes Laid in Virginia.

The play has its scenes laid in the Virginia home of a New York speculator and in a drawing room in this city.

An obviously friendly audience real from the District of New Jersey; decree affirmed with cores of No. 28256. Riggs National Bank vs. Bates et al.; ocsts.

No. 648. Rosewell E. Messinger, petitioner, vs. Fetter anderson; motion to advance denied.

No. 648. Rosewell E. Messinger, petitioner, vs. Fetter anderson; motion to advance denied.

No. 648. Rosewell E. Messinger, petitioner, vs. Gertion of a writ of certioral to the United States Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia denied.

No. 780. Great Nothern Railway Company, petitioner, vs. Gertrude T. Hill; petition for a writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia denied.

No. 773. Chicago Railway Equipment Company, petitioner, vs. The Perry Side Bearing Company et al.; petition for a writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia denied.

No. 780. Great Nothern Railway Com and in a drawing room in this city.

An obviously friendly audience received Mr. Gibson's play with more than Seventh eigenit denied.

An obviously friendly audience received Mr. Gibson's play with more than Seventh eigenit denied.

"dreams," and beautiful ones, too.

The authors keep the plot well hidden, and it does not obtrude itself too much, and Samuel D. Lit, owners of large department of the supposed to be a series of partment stores. Were admitted to the human motives. This weakness is especi- The bright, pretty, and entertaining to fall that the transit company come to some all y noticeable in the first act which con- mitted by Mr. Solicitor General Bowers and Mr. Assistant Autories General Harr for the defendant that the transit company come to some assistant autories General Harr for the defendant in error, in support of the motion and by Mr. offered is of the snappy kind that pleases place for a sleepy man; it is far too of the business men of Philadelphia, ally noticeable in the first act which conthat the transit company come to some agreement, immediate and peaceful, with its men. Both Mr. Gimbel and Mr. Littled the company that there was no sense in continuing an impossible situation; that merchants and the public gentlements are to the defendant in error, in support of the motion, and by Mr. Shepard Barclay and Mr. Thomas T. Fauntieroy and Mr. Thomas T. The second act, however—and it is played in an uncommonly tasteful and realistic New York drawing-room—showed in several scenes the skill and feeling of the public gentlements. erally had suffered enough as it is, a true playwright. When the speculative new General Harr for the defendant in error, in The story intestrates the ups and downs of two mismated pairs and the final victory of the under dogs over their temporary masters.

Miss Dora Dellicizer is the best offering of the week, and her songs were very popular last night. She has a fine voice and an attractive appearance, and is ably will consider it.

The leading sketch on the bill at Chase's this week is "Props," presented by Billy Van, assisted by the Beaumont sisters this week is "Props," presented by Billy Van, assisted by the Beaumont sisters this week is "Props," presented by Billy Van, assisted by the Beaumont sisters this week is "Props," presented by Billy Van, assisted by the Beaumont sisters that their own business had fallen off that thei the wrong man-these two episodes had President Kruger and Vice President Wolf and others of the directorate asword Mr. Gimbell and Mr. Lit that the more when he has acquired greater cerplaintiff in error, in opposition thereto.

No. — Charles R. Heike, plaintiff in error, vs. of his trade.

Scenes Well Laid.

He gave evidence of possessing sufficient instinct as a playwright to realize opposition thereto, and leave granted to counsel to wardly the directors were unmoved. After "The Turning Point," came from the sution work out its effects more infallibly. Grace Filkins as a New York widow delivered her irrelevant epigrams with so the release from the top gallery of a view in which he said that all the arbiwiew in which he said that all the arbitation talk made him sick at the stomach. "The pocketbook is back of it all," said his honor.

Pratt said to-night that John Mitchell is coming here to look over the situation and take a hand if necessary. President flock of white pigeons, the birds alight- tration talk made him sick at the was able to remember them that the ing on the heads and outstretched arms stomach. "The pocketbook is back of it audience forgave her obvious lack of time in this city, and the show was much also very artistic. He is a good violinist is coming here to look over the situation the awakened Virginia farmer, and Cuyler and clever imitator, giving impersonations and take a hand if necessary. President Hastings' usual reserve proved an ad-A two-act skit, entitled "Night Life in of celebrated musicians, such as Sarasate, William D. Mahon, of the International mirable contrast. Then he smoked his cigarettes with truly villianous virtu-

ARION HAS AN ANNIVERSARY

fifth Birthday.

The building in and out was resplendent in its holiday attire of garlands of flags, The in graceful lines from the ceiling.

John Wischhusen, president of the County, N. J., announced to-day that he he credited with a great part of the success which the Arion had experienced in its career.

Miss Pauline Holer, the president of the Ladies' Society, responded and presented to the Arion in behalf of the ladies a solid silver shield of laurel leaves surrounding the inscription, "Dem Arion Gesang Verein gewidmet von dem Arion Rowers for the plaintiffs in error. No counsel an Damen Verein, March 1, 1910." The em-blem which is surmounted with the slan.

No. 449. John Wynne, plaintiff in error, vs. The blem which is surmounted with the sinfendants will be placed in the hands of ger's lyre is mounted in a case of highly E. Davis for the plaintiff in error polished ebony.

Holer, musical director of the Arlon. Before adjourning to the rathskeller, where the ladies were entertained at a banquet, not find in his jurisdiction, and then I Harry Rothschild paid a tribute to the memory of Fred A. Rockar, late president

> The festivities will be continued and concluded to-night with a fools' session.

(Monday, February 28, 1910.)

Supreme Court of the United States.

Present: The Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Harlan,
Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice, Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice Brewer, Mr. Justice White, Mr. Justice McKenna, Mr. Justice Holmes, Mr. Justice Day, DISTRICT COURTS.

and Mr. Justice Lurton.

Frederick R. Cornwall, of St. Louis, Mo.; Clar Frederick R. Cornwall, of St. Louis, Mo.; Clarence R. Freeman, of New York City, N. Y.; Charles A. Enslow, of Chicago, Ill.; Jacinto Texidor, of San Juan, P. R.; E. A. Lane, of San Francisco, Cal.; R. P. Reese, of Pensacola, Fla.; Stephen T. Silden, of New York City, N. Y.; Nelson Zabriskie, of New York City, N. Y.; William H. Farnsworth, of Sioux City, Iowa; Wilbur Owen, of Sioux City, Iowa; Job E. Hedges, of New York City, N. Y.; Felix Frankfurter, of New York City, N. Y., and John B. Stanchfield, of New York City, N. Y., were admitted to reactive.

and John B. Stanchfield, of New York City, N. Y., were admitted to practice.

No. 114. George B. Starkweather, appellant, vs. Herbert W. T. Jouner et al.; appeal from the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia; decree affirmed with costs. Opinion by Mr. Justice Lurton.

No. 112. The Board of Assessors of the Parish of Orleans et al., appellants, vs. New York Life Insurance Company; appeal from the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern district of the United States for the Eastern district of the Court of the United States for the Eastern district of the Court of th pany. Attorney, Darlington No. 2086. Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company vs

The United States; motion to vacate allowance writ of error and supersedeas argued and submitted by Mr. Solicitor General Bowers for the defendant in error, and by Mr. George S. Graham and Mr. John B. Stanchfield for the plaintiff in error, in opposition thereto, and reave granted to comber to file printed opposition within one week. No. 816. William F, Fluhrer et al., appellants, vs. New York Life Insurance Company; advanced to be heard with No. 747 and other cases, as one Williams for the appellants. petitioner, vs. Max J. Brandenstein et al., &c.; petitioner for a writ of certionari to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second circuit submitted by Mr. James H. Hayden, in behalf of Mr. Edward A. Alexander for the respondent. No. 692. Solomon Brantley, plaintiff in error, vs.

nitted by Mr. John C. Hart for the defendant in No. 818. In the matter of Bernard Stravran, petitioner; petition for a writ of certiorari to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second circuit submitted by Mr. Edwin P. Grovener for the petitioner.

No. 212. Wilson R. Hunter, plaintiff in error, vs.

Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company; applica-tion for an order requiring the receivers of the de-fendant in error to become herein submitted by Mr. Dodge in behalf of Mr. Paul Armitage for the plaintiff in error; leave granted to counsel for the defendant in error to file opposition within one week on motion of Mr. Frederick S. Tyler in behalf week on motion of Mr. Frederick S. Tyler in behalf of counsel for the defindant in error, No. 468. Aluminum Company of America, plaintiff in error, vs. George H. Ramsey; motion to dismiss or affirm submitted by Mr. Henry M. Armistead and Mr. T. M. Mebaffy for the defendant in error in support of the motion, and by Mr. Uriah M. Rose, Mr. Wilson E. Hemingway, Mr. George B. Rose, and Mr. J. F. Loughborough for the plaintiff in error in opposition thereto.

in error in opposition thereto.

No. 725. John B. Mallers, plaintiff in error, vs.
The Commercial Loan and Trust Company; motion to dismiss or affirm submitted by Mr. Horace the United States; election to dismiss or affirm submitted by Mr. Horace 3. Stone, for the defendant in error, in support of recognition in $500, with Fidelity and Deposit Com-New York, Feb. 28.—Prosecutor of the Arion, made a short address of welcome, miss or affirm submitted by Mr. Charles E. Stat-abatement, med; control of the filing of pleas in abatement.

No. 25849. United States vs. James Craig; house-general and Messrs. Graham and Stanch-No. 594. The Interstate Commerce Commission et General Ellis for the appellants.

No. 499. The United States, plaintiff in error, vs.
Pierre Grimaud et al.: and

No. 491. The United States, plaintiff in error, vs.

United States: argument commenced by Mr. Henry

IN THE HOME

GOWAN'S PREPARATION is absolute pretection against pneumonia, coids, croup, coughs, pains and soreness in lungs and throat. Relieves at once by destroying the inflammation and congestion. External and penetrating. $1.00. 50c, 25c. All aside sale. Attorney, A. L. Newmyer.
No. 2982. Otis A. Mygate vs. John C. Rau; injunction. Attorney, F. B. Block.
No. 2985. Same vs. Same; same. Attorney, same.

Court of Appeals.

Assignment for Tuesday, March 1-Special calen dar:

No. 5. Hyde vs. United States. Attorneys, Worth

Regular call: No. 2052. Morris vs. Metropolitan Surety Com

Truitt. No. 178. Cooksey vs. Cooksey. Attorney, Evans No. 180. Braxton vs. Braxton. Attorneys, F

Circuit Court No. 1.

No. 52309. Minton vs. F. H. Smith Company

igment on demurrer; appeal noted; bond, torneys, William Bradfield—J. J. Darlington No. 5655. Hallam vs. Carrothers; judgme

Attorneys, Brown-Duvall & Davidge

Circuit Court No. 2.

CHIEF JUSTICE CLABAUGH.
No. 50987. Stoneking, administratrix, vs. Pickford et al.; on trial. Attorneys, A. A. Birney and J.

Sates Warren.
No. 51410. Repetti vs. Donohue; continued for erm. Attorneys, Lambert & Yeatman—W. E. Am-

No. 52308. Jackson vs. Lockwood; judgment by de-

No. 218. Kimball Company vs. Williams. Attor-

No. 24 McCracker vs. Capital Traction Compan

lop.
No. 2. Heinicke vs. White. Attorneys, Wolf &

Probate Court,

JUSTICE BARNARD.

Attorney, Leon Towers, jr.
Estate of Frank W. Johnson; order to turn over tickets. Attorneys, J. B. Daish, J. C. Howard, and E. H. Thomas.

Estate of Benjamin J. Cohen; order for allowance.

Attorneys, Lyon & Lyon. Estate of Catherine Simpson; order granting let-

Criminal Court No. 1.

JUSTICE GOULD.

arnal knowledge; plea, guilty; sentenced to peni-

No. 26868. United States vs. John R. Thompson:

JUSTICE BARNARD.

Equity Suits.

Parmelee; annul marriage, Attorney, C. E. Emig.

Assignments for to-day; United States vs. Walter Clay.

Estate of Susan J. Johnson; will dated December

Rosenburg-Graff & Mitchell.

Williams J. J. Darlington, H. E. Davis, and

American Laundry Machine Company v

ing & Parker-Carrington.

Braxton vs. Braxton. Attorneys, Fen-

Danenhower vs. Hayes. Attorneys

Attorneys, Hamilton

-Easby-smith.

Lawsuits.

No. 29161. Jennie Basoff vs. Joseph Verdy: set

No. 52419. Henry Washington vs. John Swartz and Benjamin Swartz; appeal. Defendant's attorney, Mark Stearman. No. 52111. Joseph Scher vs. J. T. Varnell & Son; appeal. Attorney, A. L. Newmyer, No. 56412. Hecht & Co. vs John P. Swan et al.; judgment Municipal Court, $59.88. Attorneys, Lester & Price.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

ington & Donaldson—Baker & Pugh.

No. 8. Palmer vs. Lenovitz. Attorneys, Baker & Hundekoper—Ridout. Maryland avenue, between D and Seventh streets northeast—Square 862, lot 6; Kennedy Broa., In-corporated, to Steuben Holding, $10. corporated, to Steuben Holding, $10.
721 and 723 Nineteenth street northwest—Square 141, south part of lot 10; Bessie L. White et vir to Edith L. Schuyler, $10.
Seventh street, between F and G streets northeast—Square 59, lots 13 to 17; Augusta A. Ketcham et al. to Martin L. Gottmele 50.

al. to Martin L. Gottwals, $10. First addition to Manor Park—Square 3377, lots 1 and 6; the Federal Realty Company to L. M. Watts, $10. No. 2089. American Savings Bank vs. Eisminger. Attorneys, Merillat—Carusi & Jones. No. 2094. Sweeney vs. Ewing. Attorneys, Bailey—son-David.

2098. Taylor vs. Columbia University. Attor-Davis & Naughton-Mattingly & Clephane.

2100. Miller vs. Ambrose. Attorneys, Laskey and 8; the Federal Realty Company to L. M.

Watts, $10.
Hillbrock—Square $076, lots 3, 4, and 5; Janie A.
Thomson to Meyer Hahn, $10.
P street, between Fourth and Fifth streets northwest—Square $10, cast part of lot 13; Frances E.
Gaither to Frances S. Nichols, $10.
West Eckington—Lot 71, block 3; Dora J. Evans to Henry J. Brandt and Louisa L. Braudt, $10.
Randle Highlands—Square $27, lot 22; United States
Realty Company to William E. Collis, $10.
Shadyside—Square 270. lots 22 and 23; Millton S.
Zimmerman et ux. to Henry P. Fahrney, $10.
No. 323 M street northwst—Square 1237, lot 192 and part of lot $2; Crandal Mackey et ux. to E. Willey Stearns and Morris Hamburger, trustees, for the partnership of Hymer Weger and Joe Goldstein, $10.000.
No. 216 A street southeast—Square 760, lot 22; Frank -Kasny-smath. No. 2161. Sonneman vs. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company. Attorneys, Brown & Earnest-McKenney, Flannery & Hitz. No. 28275. Dirickson vs. The Guth Chocolate Company; order ratifying sale, Attorney, W. E. No. 28174. Blake & Works stein, $16.000.

No. 216 A street southeast—Square 760. lot 22; Frank
M. Guy et ux. to Lawrence Washington, $10.

E street northeast, between Twelfth and Thirteenth—Square 1607, lot 51; John B. Harrell et ux. to Charles W. Bush, $10.

North Randle Highlands—Square 5456, lot 7; American Security and Trust Company, trustee, to Newton S. Fisher, $10.

North Randle Highlands—Square 5454, lot 69; American Security and Trust Company, trustee, to Works vs. Macfarland et al.; order limiting time to take testimony. Attorneys, Conway Robinson-

E. H. T., omas,
No. 29i61. Basoff vs. Verdy; rule returnable
March 4. Attorney, A. L. Newmyer.
No. 28729. Campania Trans-Atlantic vs. Ceballos;
on hearing. Attorneys, Ralston, Siddons & Richardson—J. J. Hemphill.

1234 Massachusetts avenue northwest-Square 283, lot 19; Harry A. Kite to Edward J. Quinn, $10. DEEDS OF TRUST.

quare 1077—Lot 51; Charles W. Bush et ux. to C. Albert White and William B. Crecy, trus-tees, to secure John B. Harrell, $1,500, monthly payments, 5 per cent per annum.

Craven Terrace—Lot 97; Jesse M. Shreve to Wilkes C. Prather and Ralph P. Williams, trustees, to secure Jacob Zarin and Newman Zarin, trustees, $500, 1 to 2 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually.

Square 545—Lot 69; Amos Hawkins to National 174. Rawlings vs. Collins. Attorneys, Penne-Carusi & Jones-Ridout.

uare 5451—Lot 69; Amos Hawkins to National Savings and Trust Company, trustee, to secure American Security and Trust Company, $300, monthly payments, 4½ per cent, semi-annually. uare 265—Lot 6; John Lynch et ux. to William P. Metcalf and John C. Davidson, trustees, to Woody vs. Woody. Attorneys, Marshallsecure William Hicks, $15,000, 3 years, 5 per gent semi-annually.

quare 1207—Lot 102 and part of lot 22; E. Willey Steams and Morris Hamburger, trustees et al.

for Hyman Weger and Joe Goldatein, to Thomas

H. Patterson and P. J. Ryan, trustees, to secure Crandal Mackey, $6,000, 3 years, 5 per cent.

JUSTICE WRIGHT.
No. 49748. Samaha vs. Palmer et al.; and
No. 49749. Same vs. Same; verdict for defendants. semi-annually. Same to same to secure Crandal Mackey, $2,500, 6 months to four years, 6 per Alex, Wolf and C. H. Merillat-C. C. cent, semi-annually.

Square 760-Lot 22; Lawrence Washington et uz, to William A. Hill and Thomas P. Kennelly, C. R. Wilson. Wather vs. Capital Traction Company; uare 361-Lot 20; August Schmidt et ux. to Richard E. Pairo and Herbert A. Gill, trustees, to secure Helen W. Pairo, $400, monthly payments, 6 per cent per annum.

mare 238—Part of lots 23 and 29; George J. McLain to Algeron S. Gardiner and W. Gilbert

Dent, trustees, to secure J. Benson Thomas, $500; 30 days, 6 per cent per annum.

servior View—Lot 24, block 2; George J. McLain

servior View—Lot 24, block 2; George J. McLain condemnation of credits attached. Attorneys, Wolf & Rosenberg-J. A. Matthews and C. F. Diggs. & Rosenberg-J. A. Matthews and C. F. Diggs. No. 5133. Green vs. Capital Traction Company; on trial. Attorneys, F. Peyton and B. L. Gas-kins-R, R. Perry & Son and G. T. Dunlop, Assignments for to-day; No. 43. Lincoln vs. Southern Construction Comto same to secure same, $500. 1 year, 6 per cent, semi-annually, uare 104 Lot 10; Robert A, White et ux, to Ernest L, Schmidt and George M. Emmerich, trustees, to secure German-American Building Association, $2,500. Association, $2,500, unare 779—North part of lot 136; Ernestine Reuter et vir to William E. Edmonston and Robert M. Morrison, trustees, to secure Julius Egioff and Edmard S. Schmid, trustees of the Washington Grutliverein, $2,400, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-Tea Company. Attorneys, Gles-Darlington. No. 517. Baden vs. Lansburgh et al. Attorneys, koma Park-Lot 16, block 2; William Stuart et akoma Park—Lot 16, block 2; William Stuart et ux. to William A, Orton and Lee C, Corbett to secure Charles O. Townsend, $1,276, 5 years, 5 per cent per annum.

alerama Heights—Lot 13, block 12; Myron M. Cady to National Savings and Trust Company, trustee, to secure American Security and Trust Company, $6,000, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually, quare 641—Lots 8 to 11; Mary McHugh et al. to William E, Edmonston and Louis R, Peak, trustees, to secure Edward S, McKnew, $1,300, 3 years, 6 per cent, semi-annually,

3 years, 6 per cent, semi-annually, terest in estate of John B, Lippold, deceased erest in estate of John B, Lappoid, deceased— Frederick Lappold to G. Percy McGhu and Howard Moran, trustees, to secure George L. Borger, $150, on demand, 6 per cent, semiusre 253-Lot 19; Edward J. Quinn et ux. to William E. Edmonston and Louis R. Peak, trus-tees, to secure Edward S. McKnew, $7,000, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually. mson and William G. Johnson, trustees, to ure Donald M. McNeale, $3,500, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annually. quare 283-Lot 19; Edward J. Quinn et ux, to William A. Hill and John Quinn, trustees, to secure Harry A. Kite, $2,000, 1 year, 6 per cent, semi-annually.

rtune Enlarged-Part of lot 12; Charles Henry Butler et ux, to National Savings and Trust and Trust Company, $5,000, 3 years, 5 per cent, semi-annualy.

Jure 859—Lot 104; Anna Schroeder to George M.

Emmerich and Douglass S. Mackall, trustees, to secure Washington Six Per Cent Permanent Building Association, $130.

hoby—Part of a tract; Clara A. Warden et sir to Frederic L. Siddons and Samuel Maddox, trus-tees, to secure Jackson H. Ralston et al., trustees, to secure Jackson H. Raiston et al., trus-tees, $45,181.61, 2 to 4 years, 5 per cent, semi-

TAKES UNUSUAL COURSE.

Estate of Henry Ulke; petition for letters of administration filed. Attorney, L. F. J. Hepburn.

Estate of Jane E. Byrnes; petition for letters of administration filed. Attorney, L. F. J. Hepburn. Bowers Asks Supreme Court to Vacate Allowance on Writ.

administration filed. Attorney, E. A. Byrnes.

Estate of Margaret P. Blair; will admitted to probate. Attorneys, H. P. Blair and C. S. Hillyer.

Estate of Francis C. Barker; petition for letters testamentary. Attorney, J. H. Lichliter. to vacate the allowance on Saturday by Justice Lurton of a writ of error in the case of Charles R. Heike, the official of the American Sugar Refining Company who, with five of his clerks, is under indictment at New York for underweighing the motion; motion to strike from the files the appearance of Horace G. Stone and the motion to dismiss or affirm submitted by Mr. Charles E. Staf-abatement filed; United States Attorney objects to No. 594. The Interstate Commerce Commission et al., appellants, vs. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company et al.; argument continued by Mr. Walker D. Hines for the appellees No. 2886. United States vs. James Johnson; allowed from a final judgment of the United States vs. James Johnson; allowed from a final judgment of the trial court

The outcome was that counsel were ment; plea, guilty; sentenced to workhouse given a week to present printed briefs in r six months, No. 25874. United States vs. Eugene Lee; assault reply to the motion of the government, and no decision will be reached by the No. 26824. Rose Barnes; manslaughter; on trial court until that time, although Mr. Bowers urged action at once, because the United States vs. Joseph Bradley.
United States vs. Joseph Bradley.
United States vs. Harry Owens and Charles with him, which had been set for to-day,

Indiana County Goes "Dry."

could not otherwise proceed.

No. 801. In re extension of Second and W streets; order ratifying verdict of jury. No. 861. In re opening of alley, square 2615; cause Indianapolis, Feb. 28.-After a contest between the local option and liquor forces of more than a month, in which tons of literature has been sent out and hundreds of speeches made. Wells No. 29160. Anne D. Parmelee vs. Julius H.

County to-day swung into the local option column by a majority of 1,533 votes.